Frank:

1. Somehow I missed the attached notice during coordination and did not catch up with it until recently. As I see it, OGC will not generally be in a position to contribute much if anything to the substantive judgments made by the Board in reviewing manuscripts. What we will be able to contribute is advice as to the legal standards to be applied, etc. In addition, I assume we will continue to represent the Agency in its dealings with former employees who submit manuscripts and their attorneys, and with the Department of Justice in cases that develop into potential or actual lawsuits. All these considerations argue in favor of an arrangement under which an OGC representative would serve not as a member of the Board but rather as attorney/advisor.

2. If you accept my suggestion, the notice should be amended to reflect an attorney/advisor rather than a membership role for OGC.
